The Brutal Murder of Maisla Mariano Dos Santos – Brazil

The 11 year old girl disappeared during a short trip when she was going to run an errand for her father to buy some items. (12 of May 2009). Her remains where identified her by the clothing.

The body itself had been completely cut up, in one sack the police found two arms, a leg, a foot, head and hips. In another bag was found the rest of her body in another location. Parts of the body was found by an uncle of Maisla.

She was kidnapped and taken to the killers apartment, where he tortured her viciously. Over 31 stabs was counted during the forensic examination, mainly on the right side of her chest (26 of them), face and private parts, these are considered to have lead to her death. But before her death the perpetrator used various of tools during the torture, that lasted for a very long time.

She had several bruises and fractures all over her body. The perpetrator beat her teeth out with a blunt object, drilled her with a power drill in one ear.

A hatchet, ax or machete is also mentioned in the documents. Her face was completely smashed in.

No sperm was found inside her vagina or anus, however it is suspected that the offender did other sexual acts to her beside the torture (for a sexual sadist that is a sexual act) by introducing objects or fingers inside her. He washed her body carefully after the brutalization as over.

The Institute of Scientific Technical Police (Itep) called the torture a “ritual of pain” that the girl had experienced, indicating a sexual sadistic attack.

When Maisla was dead he took her into the bathroom and carefully butchered her in a way the forensic pathologist described as surgical cuts that indicated time and patience.

Osvaldo Pereira (54) became the only suspect fast, he was going to the same evangelical church as Maisla´s family and the pastor of the church confirmed that Osvaldo had been expelled from the church because he made advances to children in the congregation. But over time he slipped back in and was suspected to continue attending the worship in the church.

When a search warrant was served on Osvaldo Pereira home, the police found a mattress that had large parts removed, probably where most of the attacks had occurred. But he made a mistake, he just turned over the mattress and the police on the other side could find a large amount of piercing holes, from a knife.

Luminol was used and found large trace amounts of blood in several rooms of Osvaldo’s house. Living room, bathroom, walls, floors and sink in both the bathroom and kitchen. Also they found trace evidence from one of the dumping grounds of the murdered schoolgirl matching his mattress.

Osvaldo Pereira claims to be innocent but Maislas mother during the trial claimed that she was the one who turned Osvaldo in for the inappropriate contacts with the congregation youths. The mother believe the killing was a revenge for that.

The defense had a strong case arguing not a single knife in the house of Osvaldo had any blood stains on them or could be proven to be used against anyone. And for the first days it looked like Osvaldo Pereira was going free. The police experts testified however that they found blood traces in the mattress that matched Maislas in the suspects home.

However the lack of evidence for an weapon was a problem until March 31 2010 when a buried knife was found near one of the body bags had been found. It have yet to be studied by forensic experts throughly.

The courts have yet to decide if Osvaldo is guilty or not. In a interview to a Brazilian news station he said: I'm calm, not afraid. I have faith in God," In the interview he discussed his prior criminal record, several arrests for among other drug charges. On the question if he was a pedophile he said outright, No.

He claimed he been treated well in jail and is not afraid, but pointed out the other inmates could kill him anytime. But due to his earlier prison experiences he have so far avoided such attacks.

However Maislas mother is convinced Osvaldo is the killer and butcher. She claim: "I could cry tears of blood, he cut my daughter in 11 bits because she was 11. I believe in God and he will pay for what he did,". To describe the tragedy she gone through she claims:

If I tell you what I'm feeling, you will not understand, it is elusive". The everyday has no major differences. The changes are silent. What changes is the sorrow, regret, I can not take my life, especially now when it seems that impunity will prevail," (referring to the fact that Osvaldo may very well go free).

She continues: ""People ask me on the bus if I'm the mother of Maisla, that is one thing that I find unethical. Force me to reliving it all the time, the suffering. I will only rest when the culprit is arrested,"

Strong words from a mother who´s daughter was taken from her, Osvaldo is most likely the killer even though he have a very good defense. But its hard to explain away all the blood, knife marks in the bed (pictured) or even trace evidence from his bed inside one of the bags where Maisla cut up body parts where put in.

The case is still going on (and from what we understand most is deliberated behind looked doors now), we do not know when it is over but when it is, hopefully someone from Brazil will tell us the outcome.

The pictures is of Maisla alive, a few celebrating her last birthday and one is from the crime case against Osvaldo showing the stabs in the mattress. One picture is of Osvaldo, the accused.

The video below show the finding of the first body bag, containing her head, two arms, a leg, a fot and hips. This is the brutal world we live in, reality as it is.

Brazilian police have been very good at suppressing material in regards Maislas corpse, but this video JohannaXn recieved almost on the day of the actual finding of the body bags from a special source.

What a sadistic prick I can't believe someone is capable of such acts. No swift death for him, the inmates are hopefully gonna take care of him properly.

Oh, yeah. His prison experience will be very, very unpleasant. I can understand someone getting pissed off at a rival or a lover and killing them, but to do these kinds of things to a child is to forfeit your humanity.

Now THAT is as bad as it gets. Pretty convinced they have the guy... and he'll get wasted whether he goes to prison or not, but it's doubtful he'll suffer as much as that poor little girl. There should be special circumstances of punishment for cases like that... an eye for an eye the whole fucking way.

Thats just wrong, sad to say that our law in canada / (US) & europe is so ....don't know what to call it .....doesn't make any difference. Who cares if someone goes to jail for a couple of years where he could eat, drink, read and work out, play basket ball, all free of charge, (now everyone would wanna go to jail) and go out.

should get back to execution, on whatever way.

I would like to open a pedophile penal colony on an island (pardon the obvious penal joke).. more like a game preserve.

I could have clients from all over the world to take long range sniper shots with a .50 cal at these animals. Let parents of victims in for free.... work with the make a wish foundation, really just let everyone partake in payback. It would be a hit!

maybe even pay-per-view

Re: The Brutal Murder of Maisla Mariano Dos Santos – Brazil

Thanks for a great post. The piece of shit deserves to be tortured to death just like that poor little girl. I can only imagine the pain she endured at the hands of this freaking animal.

I think any crime that involves a child should be a death sentence and not Liberal US death sentence where they sit on death row for 20 years with free cable, internet, and gym access. Instant, next room and have the same thing done to them that was done to the children so they can take that pain and trauma to hell with them.

Re: The Brutal Murder of Maisla Mariano Dos Santos – Brazil

Anyone else catch this part?

"due to his earlier prison experiences"

What more needs to be said after that? Guilty bastard. Using God(who, I believe there is a higher power, maybe not "God"), just by saying his name as a shield. Just like those American football-playin' bastards who, when successfully earns points, kisses two fingers and points them up to the sky. Yes, I am sure that's what God is aaaaall about.

WOW...i am in a state of shock right now. I have a niece near the same age, as the victim, and i swear if anyone were to harm her in any way, esp like this, they'd be fucking dead.

How anyone can do this to a CHILD is beyond me? Fucking pricks.

Re: The Brutal Murder of Maisla Mariano Dos Santos – Brazil

Wow! This is just plain disgusting, what kind of person can do this to a little girl? Oh yeah, a sociopath can, we live in one messed up world. I hope the inmates shove a broom up his ass, give him a stab for every one he gave that girl, and cut his body into small pieces. Oops.... I forgot rape him as well!

FFS! That poor girl. What an absolutely awful death. That piece of scum definitely deserves the same treatment. I volunteer. I know there are plenty of others and don't give me any of that 'that makes you as bad as the murderer' shit. No it does not. If he was an 11 year old kid, then maybe, but he isn't.
I really hope he gets what he deserves.

It says he smashed her face in completely, but the video shows her looking like a pretty normal kids face. What gives there?

Torture that fucker. Stick needles in his eye pupils, hammer his balls, take a plyers and rip out his finger nails and rip off both nostrils , take the hammer and screwdriver and knock out one tooth at a time, then kick the son of a bitch in the head with steel toed boots.

What a piece of shit. He needs to be tortured for days and things done to him that he did to the little girl, only longer. I can't fathom how anyone can torture a child. He'll rot in hell.

I dont get it ,if his house is covered with the blood of a missing child plus a mattress riddled with a piercing tool why they even need the weapon ,he could throw it in the ocean and walks free?How stupid is that?
